Greetings

Welcome to Turku!

It is my pleasure to welcome all the participants of the European Heritage Congress organised by Europa Nostra to Turku in the springtime. Europa Nostra carries out valuable work, and we are proud that Turku, as the oldest city in Finland, has the opportunity to host this congress. This is a significant honour for both Turku and Finland, which this year celebrates its centenary. At this time, I would like to thank all of you who have had a hand in bringing this congress to Turku.

Surrounded by an archipelago, Turku has often acted as the gateway to new ideas and influences arriving in our country. This is why our culture today is a rich combination of new and old, east and west as well as both intangible and built cultural heritage. The city of Turku wishes to cherish and conserve its 800-year-old culture as evidenced by the Paavo Nurmi Legacy project, which this year won a European Union Prize for Cultural Heritage / Europa Nostra Award.

This year is Finland's centenary, and Turku also participates in the celebrations with traditions in mind, a bold attitude, and with our eyes on the future.

One of the main events of the centenary is the largest folk culture event in Europe, Europeade, which will now be held in Finland for the first time, here in Turku. In July, the event will attract over 6,000 dancers, singers and musicians to our city. Turku is also the only reformation city in Finland and the capital of the Church of Finland. Kirkkopäivät (Church Days) is the main event of the Reformation anniversary year, and will take place at the end of May. It is an urban festival intended for all, which offers a look into the Church of the 21st century. Also, in July, the world's largest sailing ships will sail to the city for the fifth time. On this occasion, the city will be full of young sailors from all over the world.

I myself was born and raised in Turku, and this city means everything to me. In Turku, lovers of culture will find plenty of interesting events, such as concerts, theatre performances, art exhibitions and festivals. For this reason, I hope that Turku will leave a lasting impression on you during your visit, and that you will have the chance to come back some day.

Welcome

It is our great pleasure to invite you to attend Europa Nostra's European Heritage Congress 2017 in Turku organised under the patronage of the President of Finland Sauli Niinistö. Turku is the oldest city of Finland and we are most grateful to the City of Turku for its remarkable cultural spirit and enthusiastic support which made this Congress possible.

We are proud to present to you a rich programme of meetings, events and cultural visits. We shall start on 11 May with a day dedicated to Maritime Heritage: the Public Session of the Scientific Council on Lighthouses and Towers will be followed by a special Industrial Heritage Tour organised by Europa Nostra's Industrial and Engineering Heritage Committee together with Europa Nostra Finland.

On 12 May, the Council of Europa Nostra will meet in the morning at the Turku City Hall followed by the General Assembly with a public session dedicated to the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018. In the evening, the City of Turku will host a Welcome Reception in the Turku Library, whose modern architecture has received many awards.

On 13 May, Europa Nostra Finland in cooperation with the University of Turku organises a full-day Forum on SHARING HERITAGE – Citizens Participating in Decision-Making, presenting inspiring examples from various countries in Europe. In the evening, participants will have the opportunity to continue discussions during a Boat Cruise through the unique scenery of the Turku archipelago.

The entire day of 14 May will be dedicated to the Excellence Fair, thus allowing you to attend all presentations made by the winners of the EU Prize for Cultural Heritage / Europa Nostra Awards 2017.

The “Grand Finale” of the Congress is reserved for the European Heritage Awards Ceremony which will be held in the evening of 15 May at St. Michael's Church in Turku. The Ceremony will be co-hosted by Tibor Navracsics, European Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport, and Maestro Plácido Domingo, President of Europa Nostra. The ceremony will be followed by a Festive Dinner at the Turku Castle where the Congress will be closed in a truly historic atmosphere.

The cultural programme features visits to the Turku Art Museum and excursions to the beautiful Ruissalo Island and the stunning medieval wooden towns of Rauma and Naantali as well as an exceptional tour dedicated to Finnish Modernism.

The Congress has been organised with the help of a dedicated team of Europa Nostra Finland and the invaluable support of the City of Turku, the Ministry of the Environment, the Ministry of Education and Culture, the University of Turku and the Åbo Akademi University as well as the Turku University Foundation, the Åbo Akademi University Foundation and numerous other public and private partners from Finland, all of whom are acknowledged at the end of this booklet. As a core activity of Europa Nostra's Network project 'Mainstreaming Heritage', the Congress is supported by the Creative Europe programme of the European Union.

On behalf of the Europa Nostra teams in Helsinki and Turku, The Hague and Brussels, we warmly welcome you to Turku.

Ruissalo Island in Turku was a fashionable summer destination for distinguished guests in the 19th century due to its noteworthy villas, some of the first of their kind in the Nordic countries. The island still attracts visitors for being a popular leisure area since the beginning of the 20th century. The Finnish artist Kaj Stenvall will give a tour of his home, the Villa Roma designed by Georg Th. Chiewitz in 1850, which has been the inspiration for several outstanding Nordic villas.

The visit will continue with a guided tour of the National Romantic Turku Art Museum, which was designed by Professor Gustaf Nyström in 1904, including the photo exhibition of Elina Brotherus, an internationally renowned Finnish photographer. The permanent collection is comprised of around 7,000 works of art and is particularly famous for its Finnish art, Surrealism and Pop Art.

Both towns feature well-preserved and architecturally unified wooden historic centres which are still dynamic parts of the cities today with shops, cafés and artist workshops. The first buildings in Rauma date back to the 17th century, consisting today of over 600 privately owned wooden buildings on a 29-hectare area. Naantali was built around a Bridgettine Convent and has been a lively spa town since the 19th century. The official summer residence of the President of the Finnish Republic is located in Naantali.

The Paimio Sanatorium

This tour will present the most important and world-famous works of three masters of Finnish Modernism: Alvar Aalto (1898-1976), Erik Bryggman (1891-1955) and Pekka Pitkänen (b. 1927). Aalto and Bryggman brought Functionalism to Finland and Pitkänen was Bryggman's apprentice in the 1950s. The Paimio Sanatorium (1929-1933) was Alvar Aalto's international breakthrough and the start of his organic approach to Functionalism. Bright colours and views of the outside world are used to cheer up the patients. Structural solutions were very ambitious. In Bryggman's Resurrection Chapel (1938-1941) and Pitkänen's experimental concrete architecture in the Chapel of the Holy Cross (1963-1967), nature and natural light play a crucial role. Lunch will be served at the Tuorla Manor - a 19th century neoclassical manor complex, the extension and renovation of which was designed by Erik Bryggman.

The Helsinki-Malmi Airport is listed among the 7 Most Endangered heritage sites in Europe 2016 by Europa Nostra and the European Investment Bank Institute. By organising this exceptional excursion, Europa Nostra wishes to give additional support to the local campaigning efforts to keep this historic airport in use. A heritage plane DC 3 (Douglas Aircraft Company DC-3A-453 C/N 6346) from the year 1942 will take us from Turku to Helsinki-Malmi Airport.
